*Closing Hymn

#326 "Spirit, Spirit of Gentleness" vs (1, 2, 4)

*Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,
blow through the wilderness calling and free;
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,
wind, wind on the sea.*

*You moved on the waters, you called to the deep,
then you coaxed up the mountains
from the valleys of sleep;
and over the eons you called to each thing:
"Awake from your slumbers and rise on your wings."*

*Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,
blow through the wilderness calling and free;
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,
wind, wind on the sea.*

*You swept through the desert, you stung with the sand and you goaded your people with a law and a land;
and when they were blinded with idols and lies,
then you spoke through your prophets to open their eyes.*

*Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,
blow through the wilderness calling and free;
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,
wind, wind on the sea.*

*You call from tomorrow, you break ancient schemes.
From the bondage of sorrow all the captives dream dreams;
our women see visions, our men clear their eyes.
With bold new decisions your people arise.*

*Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,
blow through the wilderness calling and free;
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness,
stir me from placidness, wind, wind on the sea.*

DO WE NEED A BETTER GOSPEL?

By Reverend Dr. Doug Cederberg

I attended an anniversary party for my in-laws last week. They have been married for 70 years! Family and friends gathered for a pleasant afternoon to honor the long-time husband and wife.

At one point in the afternoon, the conversation at my table focused on churches. One man said that over the years, as a choir member, he has been looking out at a sanctuary that used to be full of people for two services every Sunday. But now the sanctuary is mostly empty pews during its one and only service on Sundays.

As you would expect, each of the people at the table had an opinion of why this is happening in so many churches. I am sure you have heard most or all of the things said before, so there is no need for me to mention them. One thing, though, is for sure – it is heartbreaking for people to see their beloved church dwindle away. And there are no easy answers or quick fixes. However...

About 15 years ago I was at a ministerial conference in which the main speaker described how over the 4000 years of Judeo-Christian history there has been a major upheaval every 500 years. The last major upheaval was in 1520, when Christianity divided into Protestant and Roman Catholic branches. We are due, on the cusp of a new upheaval, she said. Exactly what will emerge remains to be seen, but all the signs of the eruption of major change are being noticed. What will come about will be different from what we used to be.

Her name was Phyllis Tickle, and she said that about every 500 years God “cleans out the attic,” so to speak, and has a major rummage sale. You know how we accumulate a lot of unnecessary junk in our homes, and how nice it is when all the clutter gets cleared out. In the same way, we in the church need to get rid of a lot of old ideas, beliefs, customs, and traditions that would make way for a whole new experience of faith. Tickle said that this is not a bad thing; in fact, it is God at work in a surprising way. God is making all things new, if we allow.

My passion is to think and talk about our ideas of God and what they mean for us as a church and as individuals. Some of our ideas could stand being cleaned out of the attics of our minds and replaced by new ideas. I realize that not everybody shares my passion, but if you are curious, please consider attending the upcoming Theology 2 class. I got the idea for the course while reading a book written by my former New Testament professor Klyne Snodgrass.

Klyne is a driven debunker. To debunk something is to take the bunk, nonsense, out of it. In his book, “You Need a Better Gospel”, he clears out the attic of bad theological ideas that clutter our churches, and he offers a fresh alternative. As his former student, I can vouch for how he has no patience for outmoded, disproven, and nonsensical ideas about God.

If you want to explore some fresh ideas and clean out your attic, come and join me! ♦

THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST: GOOD NEWS, NOT MERELY GOOD ADVICE.

Many churchgoers (and pastors) are unable to define what is meant by 'the Gospel of Jesus Christ.' Somehow, Christianity has been turned into a system of 'dos and don'ts' rather than the joyful news of what God has done in Jesus Christ and is still doing through the Holy Spirit. In some cases, political ideologies have become more prominent than the gospel in many churches. Alas, as churchgoing declines in our society, we become so focused on how to keep our church going that we overlook what God has done, is doing, and will do through those who participate in the ongoing life of Jesus Christ. If the church is to live on, we need life from God!

The Christian faith was first and foremost the proclamation of good (joyful) news, which is what 'gospel' means. This course will go back to the basics of Christianity. Pastor Doug will base the course, more or less, on a book written by his friend and former professor, Klyne Snodgrass. Dr. Snodgrass, now retired from teaching, remains a world-renowned biblical scholar.
